ABOUT MONIFF

Monadnock International Film Festival (MONIFF) celebrates our world's diversity through independent films that educate, enrich, and engage audiences. In addition to year-round community screenings, MONIFF hosts three days of high-quality, independent cinema, domestic and foreign feature films and shorts, film industry panels, and Q&As with guest filmmakers in Keene, New Hampshire, followed by 10 days of virtual content for audiences to enjoy on-demand. Founded in 2011, MONIFF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

MONIFF is proud to represent and share the stories of diverse communities. We feature local, regional and global films and filmmakers covering timely topics such as climate change, activism, indigenous cultures, BIPOC, LGBTQ, women empowerment, and more.
